The Blue Goose is a story that all started in Liz's kitchen and her experimentations with her Sunday AM Farmer's Market finds. What started as a fun hobby soon became a full on obsession that led into an award winning cafe. The Blue Goose believes no fruit or vegetable should ever be unloved. And no dish should ever be un-pickled.

We think pickling is an art underated. Almost every cuisine has a pickled vegetable accenting their foods. Our menu incorporates foods with long standing traditions but with a farm to table twist update: Banh mi sandwich topped with pickled jalepenos and a healthy dose of cilantro chutney, crispy fish tacos with our spicy chipotle sauce and pickled cabbage slaw, whitefish salad with pickled ramps and radishes on a bed of baby kale.
